August 1982

Caid

Aoife nic Ruairí. Name change from Ommadan an Luch and device change. Per pale sable and vert, a mouse sejant erect playing an Irish harp argent.

When her name was submitted, the submitter neglected to note that she already had a primary name registered. The error was caught recently by the submitter, and so we are correcting it now. Her previous name, Ommadan an Luch is retained as an alternate name.

Her previous device, registered in August 1979 and reblazoned in April 2002 as Argent, semy of shamrocks vert, a mouse rampant sable maintaining an Irish harp Or stringed vert, is retained as a badge.

Atlantia

Iollann of Glencairn. Name change from Eilionora inghean Domhnaill.

When her second name was submitted, the submitter neglected to note that it was a name change, not a new name. The error was caught recently by the submitter, and so we are correcting it now. Her previous name, Eilionora inghean Domhnaill, is released.

Atlantia

Josce de Bretaingne. Name.

Listed on the LoAR as a name change from Gwillim Kynith, this submission is not from the same person. The legal names on the submission forms are quite different. The confusion arose because Josce originally tried to submit the name Gwilim Kynith, which was returned in October 2005 for conflict with Gwillim, and a commenter mentioned this when the name Josce was submitted. Gwillim Kynith should be a primary name, not an alternate name for Josce, and the armory currently registered to Josce, Or, a coney and a fox combatant within an orle gules, should be associated with Gwillim, not Josce.
