A Quick Summary of SENA Changes (Revised)

Jeanne Marie Palimpsest

NPN4B2 – Non-Personal Name Presumption

- If a historic order name is important enough to protect, adding a branch name doesn't remove presumption
- Example:
 - We wouldn't register Order of the Garter of Caid since we protect Order of the Garter.

A5F – Substantial Change (SC)

- Allows a substantial difference for changes to the field for all fielded armory, not just field-primary armory.
 - Any divided field is clear of any plain field (A5F1a)

is clear of

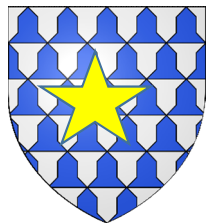

and

but not

since it is fieldless

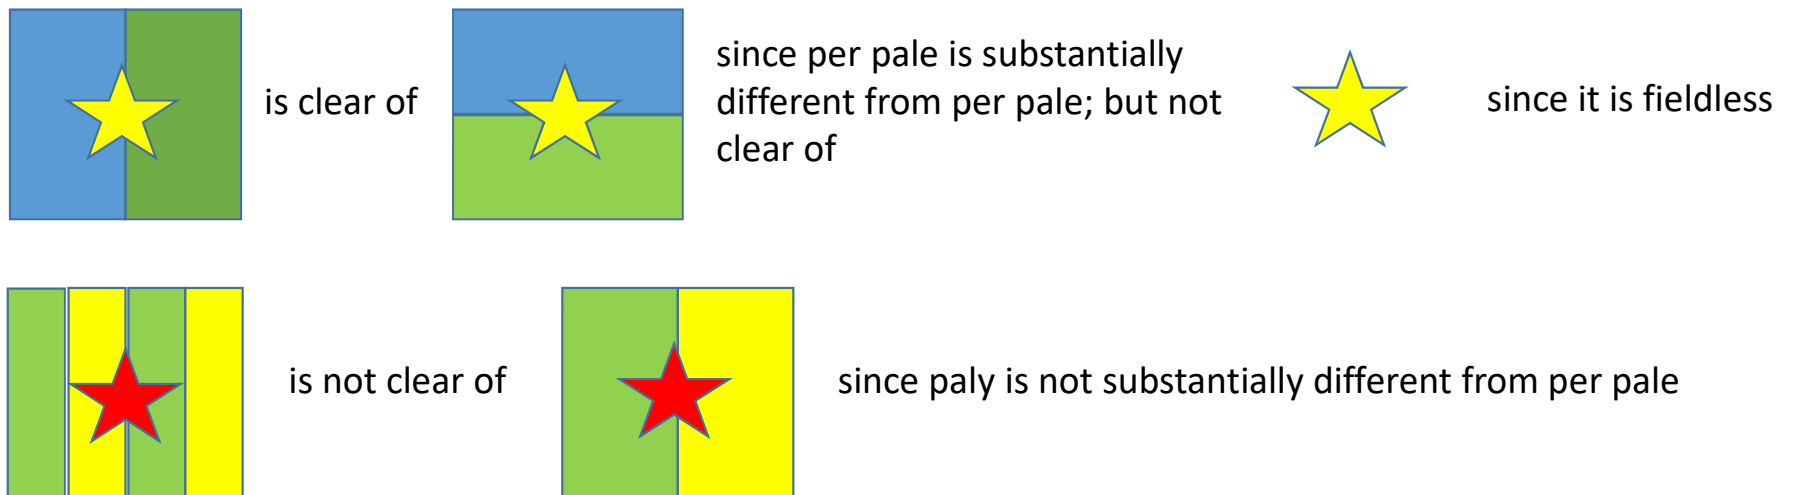

is not clear of

since multiply divided furs are considered plain tinctures for purposes of A5F1a

A5F – Substantial Change (SC)

- All armory can get an SC for substantially changing the direction of division, not just field-primary armory (A5Fb2).

A5G1 – Distinct Change (DC)

- Allows all fielded armory to receive multiple DCs changes to the field, not just field-primary armory

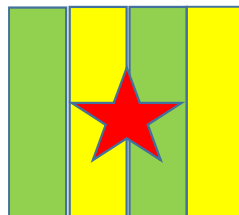

has 2 DCs from

1 for changing half the tincture (A5G1a)
1 for changing the type of the partition line (A5G1b)

has 2 DCs from

1 for changing half the tincture (A5G1a)
1 for changing number of pieces (A5G1c)

has 1 DC from

1 for fieldlessness (A5G1e) – you can't get a second DC for dividing a non-existent field.

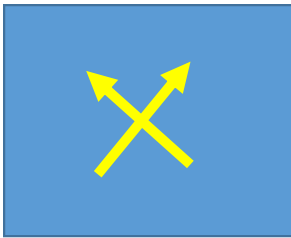

Appendix A – Name Patterns

- Added documented Lithuanian patterns under Baltic.

Appendix K – Standard Arrangements of Charges Groups

- For purposes of determining if charges are in an allowable arrangement, two charges in saltire or three charges in a sheaf are considered a single charge. For all other purposes they are still two or three charges.

Counts as 1 charge
for arrangement

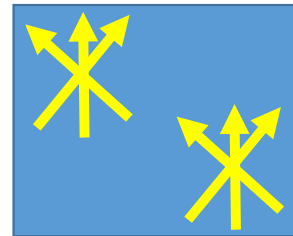

But 2 charges for conflict

Counts as 1 charge
for arrangement

But 3 charges for conflict

Counts as 2 charges
for arrangement

But 6 charges for conflict

Webbed Updates

- Glossary of Terms has been updated to include Table 6 – Named Motifs. Currently this is only the cross of Caid.
- SENA Appendices A and K have been updated.
- SENA NPN4B2, A5F, and A5G1 will be updated around July 21st, assuming that the BoD approves the changes at the July 18th quarterly meeting.
 - The assumption is that the BoD will approve the changes and Laurel is operating under the updates as published in the interim – they are treated as precedents at this point.
