Pádraig Mac Fhaoláin. Belated return of name change from Ædric Duquesne.

Submitted as Pádraig Mac Fhaoláin, this name change was accepted on the LoAR in error as Pádraig Mac Faoláin. However, the submitter allowed no changes, and so this name should have been returned, with the return reading:

No documentation was submitted and none found to suggest that the genitive Faoláin needed to be lenited in a masculine patronymic. We would change the name to Pádraig Mac Faoláin to correct the grammar, but the submitter does not allow any changes.
