WESTERN CROWN

The following Arms, devices and/or names are herewith rejected by the College of Arms of the SCA, for reasons given:

Julie of Blackwater: (badge) held pending further research.

Beltran of the Mont: please remove the inescutcheon of pretense.

Richard of Alsace: too close to Atenveldt, the town of Dingwall (in Scotland), and the SCA lady Wendryn.

Swami F.F.T.E. : "Swami" is not, to Our knowledge, a proper name.
Please try to take a name more in keeping with the purposes of the SCA Inc.

Azarael the Soul Separator: I doubt very much that the Islamic Angel of Death has joined the Society.
Change it!

March of the Cleftlands: We must be able to see an emblazon to be able to pass on it. Please submit a more clear emblazon.

Tufren de Lisle: too close to Roger Zelazny's "Amber" novels.

Heralds Melee Team of the Middle Kingdom: this device is copyrighted.
Remind the CoA to crucify
you someday.....grunge.

Profuse apologies for the lateness of this batch of devices. Due to work pressures and home problems, not much time has been devoted to the Society of late. This should be changing within a couple of months....thank you all for your varying degrees of patience.

PLEASE send me letters of comment on other heralds device submissions!
Without those, I must go up to ASU's Library and research myself.....
thus adding delay.
