

November 2023 CL & LoAR

A Quick Summary of Changes

Jeanne Marie Palimpsest

From Wreath: A5E5

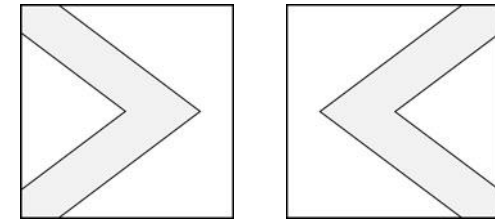

- A new section is added to A5E5 to address the difference in orientation/type between ordinaries. Each ordinary in a pair has an SC for orientation; each pair of ordinaries has an SC for type or orientation from all other pairs.

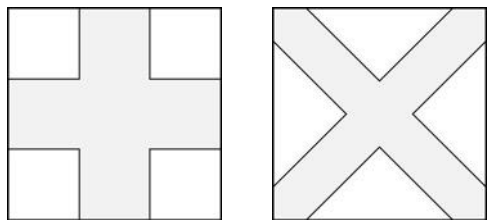

A bend and a bend sinister

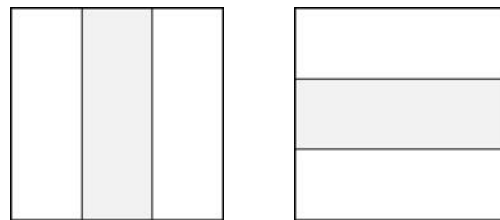

A chevron and a chevron inverted

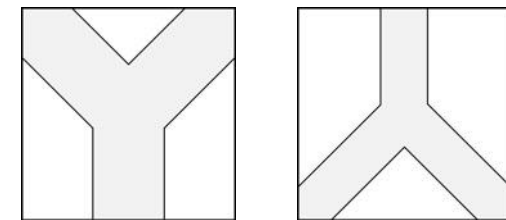

A chevron couched from dexter and a chevron couched from sinister

A cross and a saltire

A pale and a fess

A pall and a pall inverted

From Pelican: Nahuatl Alternate Titles

- Based on research by Kallinikos Gavras, Rouge Scarpe Herald, Nahuatl titles have been added to List of Alternate Titles.

Nahuatl

Rank	Gender Neutral	Masculine	Feminine
Crown	Huey Tlatoani	Huey Tlatoani	Huey Cihuatlatoani
Coronet	Tlatocapilli/Cacique (territorial)	Tlatocapilli/Cacique (territorial)	Tlatocacihuapilli/Cacica (territorial)
Duchy	Teuctli	Teuctli	Cihuateuctli
County	Teuctli	Teuctli	Cihuateuctli
Viscounty	Teuctli	Teuctli	Cihuateuctli
Peerage Order	Tlamatini	Tlamatini	Cihuatlamatini
Knight (title)
Knight (noun)	Cuachic	Cuachic	Cihuacuachic
Barony	Cuautlatoani/Cacique	Cuautlatoani/Cacique	Cihuacuautlatoani/Cacica
Award or Grant of Arms	Pilli; -tzin	Pilli; -tzin	Cihuapilli; -tzin

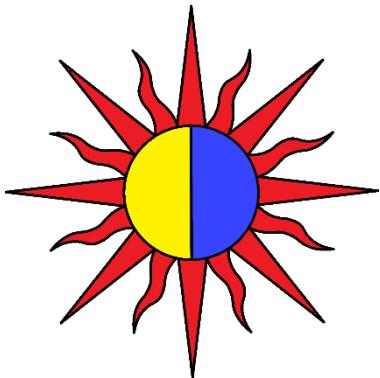

Note: All titles can be used regardless of gender unless the title specifically contains the word for “woman” (Cihua).

From the LoAR: Names

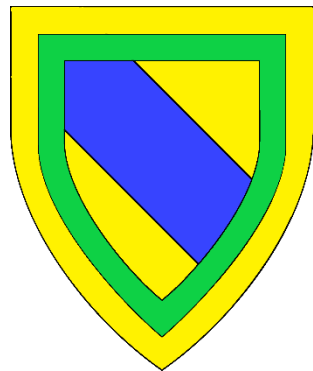

- Ursula Georges' article "Greek Names with Scytho-Sarmatian Roots" uses circumflexes over vowels in place of macrons due to the typography limitations at the time it was written. When using this article, the macrons should be used. [Mai{o-}sara Neara Kardiana, 11/2023, A-Gleann Abhann]

From the LoAR: Armory

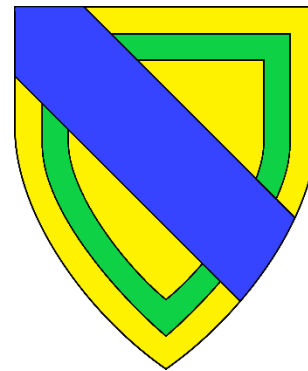

- Eclipsing a sun with a multi-tinctured roundel is a step from core practice. [Jayce Alexander Whitlock, 11/2023, A-An Tir]
- The default for an ordinary within an orle or tressure is within and conjoined to the orle or tressure. Ordinaries that reach the edge of the shield are also allowed; they may surmount or pass under the orle or tressure. No difference is granted between the three versions.. [Áine MacFie, 11/2023, A-Ansteorra]

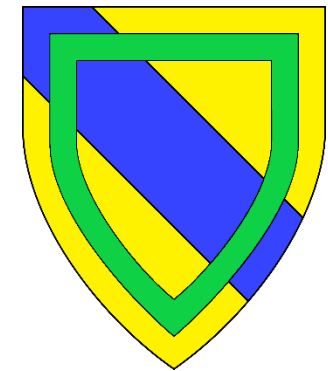

A sun gules eclipsed per pale Or and azure – this is a step from core practice.

The default for a bend within an orle.

A bend and an orle

A bend and an orle

From the LoAR: Armory

- A wolf statant regardant proper maintaining on its back a lamb is a period posture for wolf and lamb. [Birgir Ulfsson, 11/2023, A-Caid]
- Despite some similarities in shape to an escutcheon and a billet, keystones are not considered a form of heraldic display for the purposes of SENA A3A2. [Dun Or, Barony of, 11/2023, A-Caid]
- The addition of a chief to a quartered field removes the appearance of marshalling. [Bran mac Cianain, 11/2023, A-East]

Bran mac Cianain's device was ruled to not be marshalled.

From Traité de l'art du blason

<https://gallica.bnf.fr/ark:/12148/btv1b8470180c/f241.item>

From the LoAR: Armory

- Five charges on a pall default to two, one, one, and one. [Mai{o}sara Neara Kardiana, 11/2023, A-Gleann Abhann]
- Two charges in saltire surmounted by a third is considered three co-primary charges. [Santiago Raymundo Montoya, 11/2023, R-Caid]
- Spots, in various arrangements, are often found as part of the marking on butterflies in period armory. As such, they do not contribute difference as tertiary charges. [Miyazaki Atsutaka, 11/2023, R-Calontir]

Default arrangement for 5 charges on a pall.

In saltire an arrow vert and a sword inverted gules, overall a compass star Or was returned for three different charges in the same charge group. [Santiago Raymundo Montoya]

Miyazaki Atsutaka's badge was returned for conflict with Or, a butterfly azure within an orle vert.

Webbed Updates

- List of Alternate Titles will be updated shortly.
- SENA A5E5 has been updated.
- Table 7 of the Glossary of Terms has been updated.