Dun in Mara, Shire of. Device. Per pale gules and sable, a portcullis within a laurel wreath Or.

Registered under the name Lough Davanree, Shire of, that name was later corrected via reconsideration to Lough Devnaree, Shire of. The arms were actually intended for the Shire of Dun in Mara, and the initial registration to Lough Devnaree made in error. We are therefore returning the arms to Dun in Mara, and returning Lough Devnaree's original device, Argent, a bull passant and on a chief azure three laurel wreaths argent.
